Experience

Full-stack Web Developer

HokeiDigital3D

Apr 2022 - Present (2 years 4 month)

As a Fullstack developer, I am responsible for developing and maintaining high-performance websites, building responsive and dynamic web applications using React/Next.js.

My expertise extends to implementing advanced 3D model rendering on the web through the Three.js library, adding immersive elements to web environments. Additionally, I design and develop a robust GraphQL API using Node.js, Apollo Server, and Prisma ORM, tailored to efficiently retrieve and manipulate data stored in either MongoDB or MySQL databases.
